

TO MAKING THE MOST OF PROTESTS, RALLIES & TOWN HALLS

GATHER, GO, & GROW

To foster a strong community of Troublemakers who are informed, engaged, and empowered to make a difference through collective action and advocacy you have to build a blueprint. These are some building blocks to get you started!

PRE-PROTEST PREPARATION

- Rally Your People. Contact all your friends, family, and associates through <https://go.rally.win/rwb-nc>
- Organize meetups with friends, family, and associates who plan to attend protests
- Create a relational based in person or online group (zooms, google meet, social media or messaging apps) for real-time updates and discussions.

EDUCATION AND AWARENESS

- Discuss key topics and themes relevant to the protests, ensuring everyone knows what to listen for and observe.
- Identify goals for gathering insights on how protests will affect local, state, and federal elections
- Create a list of questions to explore during the protests (e.g., How will this affect women's rights? What are the demands of the speakers?)

DATA COLLECTION STRATEGIES

- Plan how to collect data during the protests, such as taking notes, recording speeches, or gathering information from other groups attending.
- Designate a "note-taker" or "documenter" within your group to ensure comprehensive insights are captured
- Utilize videography to capture key moments and monitor social media for hashtag trends, live stream, perform participant interviews for personal insights.

POST-PROTEST DEBRIEFING

- Meet for brunch, lunch, dinner, or drinks to debrief or create a virtual forum or group chat for sharing stories and insights post-event.
- Share key takeaways from the protests, including the speakers and their main points & direct impacts on our community and issues.
- Share your Experience with those who couldn't attend and encourage them to share their thoughts and reflections on the issues being protested

CREATE ACTIONABLE STEPS

- Use debrief sessions to brainstorm and develop individual and group calls to action for the Red Wine and Blue networks
- Create a follow-up plan for ongoing engagement including future protests and community meetings
- Encourage participation in local advocacy groups or community organizations

Stay Engaged and Keep Showing Up!
