

Rally To Get Out The Vote Trainings

Want to be part of taking back power in November? From local offices to statehouses to Congress, every race matters, and friend-to-friend organizing is one of the most effective tools we have to increase voting in all of them. Learn how you can make an impact by talking to the people you already know, why it works, and how to get started. This is how we fight back — and we're going all in together

Sign up for these trainings on the RWB events page at <https://redwine.blue/events/> or by clicking on the date below.
